Terms and conditions

The following Terms and Conditions apply to Enbridge Gas Inc.'s ("Enbridge Gas") Air Tightness Testing Program (the "Program"). The Program is offered by Enbridge Gas to advance the adoption of air tightness testing in commercial and multi-family new construction buildings based on the terms and conditions described below. Applicant acknowledges that participation in this Program is limited and is on a first-come, first-served basis. Enbridge Gas has the right to refuse an application or to cancel the Program or any part thereof at any time without notice. Should the maximum Program funding levels be reached, Enbridge Gas reserves the right to prematurely terminate the Program, prior to the dates set out below for any potential applicants that have not completed the application process.

To be eligible to participate in our educational workshop for Air Tightness Testing.

- (a) It is best suited for individuals with building envelope or building commissioning interest/experience.
- (b) Have a work and/or educational background in building enclosure, energy modelling, architecture, building sustainability, structural engineering, energy auditors or similar, general contractors, and builders/developers.
